What are my obligations?

You must make a fair presentation of the risk to Us at inception, renewal and variation of Your policy. This means that You must tell Us about all facts and circumstances which may be material to the risks covered by the policy in a clear and accessible manner and that You must not misrepresent any material facts. A material fact is one which would influence the acceptance or assessment of the risk. If You have any doubt about facts considered material, it is in Your interest to disclose them to Us.

Please check that all the information recorded in Your documents is correct. If there are any inaccuracies or omissions, please inform Us immediately. Failure to make a fair presentation of the risk could result in the policy being avoided, written on different terms and/or a higher premium being charged, depending on the circumstances surrounding the failure to present the risk fairly.

You must take all reasonable precautions to prevent loss or damage and comply with any security or other loss prevention conditions in Your policy document. You must notify Us promptly of any event which might lead to a claim and follow the Claims Procedure set out in Your policy. For further details and any specific obligations relating to Your trade or Business activities following Our assessment of Your risk, please refer to Your policy documents

When and how do I pay?

- You can pay your premium as a one-off payment by Debit or Credit card.
- Payment is to be made at the point of sale or renewal of Your policy.

When does the cover start and end?

The period of insurance is for a period of 12 months and will start on the date You select when You purchase the policy and will end 12 months later. This information will be shown in Your Policy Schedule.

How do I cancel the contract?

- You have a statutory right to cancel Your policy within 14 days (cooling off period) from the start date or renewal of Your policy or from the day on which You receive Your policy or renewal documentation, whichever is later. We will refund the premium, less a proportionate amount for the time You have been on covered.
- You can also cancel this policy at any time after the Cooling Off Period. If You have not made a claim, we will refund any premium You have paid less a proportional premium for the length of cover You have had. If You have made a claim, we will not refund any premium You have paid.
Please refer to Your Policy Wording and Schedule for details of cancellation charges that may apply.
